(c) if so, to what extent this nexus between the underworld and Bollywood has been established; and

(d) what action has been taken to eliminate this and the extent of success in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRIMATI SUSHMA SWARAJ): (a) to (d) Yes, Sir. However, "Police" is a State subject as per the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution of India and, as such, registration, investigation, detection and prevention of crimes is primarily the responsbility of the State Governments.

Nevertheless, in order to facilitate a greater flow of institutional finance to the film industry, Notification dated 16.10.2000 was issued by the Department of Economic Affairs (Banking Division), Ministry of Finance, whereunder the "Entertainment Industry including films" has been specified as an approved activity under "Industrial Concern" in exercise of powers conferred by Section 2(c)(xvii) of the IDBI Act. The Industrial Development Bank of India has evolved guidelines to enable banks and financial institutions to fund proposals for financing of film production.

Development of infrastructural facilities for computerisation

852. SHRI RAMDAS AGARWAL: Will the Minister of LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the amount allocated to each State for the development of infrastructural facilities for computerisation in courts particularly in Rajasthan and Orissa during the last two years;

(b) the names of the States where the judiciary has been totally computerised; and

(c) by when all the courts in the country are likely to be computerised?

THE MINISTER OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI ARUN JAITLEY): (a) The amounts allocated/ released for the development of infrastructural facilities for computerisation in courts for the States/Union territories for the years

2000-2001 and 2001-2002 including the amounts allocated/released to Rajasthan and Orissa are given in the Statement. (See below)

(b) and (c) The judiciary has not been totally computerised in any State. However, computerisation has been completed in most of the High Courts by the National Informatics Centre.

The Subordinate judiciary is primarily the concern of State Governments/High Courts. Hence, no time limit can be specified for this purpose.
